

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

General Event Questions

- What is the Comedians Unplugged event?

Comedians Unplugged is an all-new virtual experience being broadcast exclusively to our Susan G. Komen community on Friday, July 16th. During the event, we'll take you "behind the curtain" to hear intimate conversations with world-class comedians like you've never heard them before.

- How will the funds raised during this event support the Komen mission?

Whether you purchase a ticket, participate in our opportunity drawing and auction, or upgrade to a curated in-home experiences, you will be directly impacting our fight against breast cancer. Funds raised during this event will help support breakthrough research and critical patient care services like Komen's Treatment Assistance Program and Breast Care Helpline.

- Do I need to watch the event live? Can I watch later with my ticket purchase?

Comedians Unplugged is a one-time livestreamed experience that will not be recorded or shared at any other time. Any supporters wishing to view the event must plan watch at the live show time. If you are unable to join on that date, but would like to support the event, you may wish to consider a tax-deductible donation in-lieu of a ticket purchase.

Website & Ticketing Questions

- How will I receive my ticket(s) for this event?

After you purchase your ticket, you will receive an email receipt with your ticket information from our ticketing partner, OneCause. If you do not receive your confirmation in your inbox, please check your spam folder as it may have been inaccurately flagged by your email provider.

- Why is my entire ticket or package purchase not considered tax-deductible?

Per IRS regulations, only the amount that exceeds the Fair Market Value (FMV) of your purchase may be considered tax-deductible. The FMV includes the estimated cost of purchasing a similar ticket or ticket package components on the open market. A detailed breakdown of the FMV of your ticket or package purchase is available upon request.

- Is someone available to assist me if I have additional questions?

Absolutely! Our dedicated staff is available to answer any additional questions, troubleshoot any issues that may arise, or assist with your ticket purchase or donation. Please contact Francisco Munoz at fmunoz@komen.org or (619) 393-5065 for direct assistance.
